

VACANCY - CHEF DE PARTIE (FULL TIME) - Cafe Binnenvisser - Amsterdam

Café Binnenvisser is an eatery / restaurant in Amsterdam Oud-West with a focus on (natural) wine and an almost weekly changing seasonal menu. We established Café Binnenvisser two and a half years ago and we have built up a steady influx and a large audience since. Our clientele consists of many people from the neighborhood and a mix of expats and tourists who are looking for qualitative (natural) wine and a culinary experience. A vibrant, dynamic atmosphere and high quality products are our focal point and we believe that this will create a sustainable hospitality industry company which will be successful for many years.

Our menu consists of 7-10 kitchen dishes with a small menu with snacks. Guests can choose from a set menu or go for a la carte where they share a number of dishes. These are mainly dishes that focus on vegetables. The dishes that we serve consist mainly of organic / biodynamic regional and locally grown products. We work together with a number of local suppliers such as greengrocers and game pickers from Amsterdam and its surroundings.

At the moment we are looking for an independent chef who can assist and support the current sous and head chef (and co-owner), so the head chef can focus on a more creative and supporting role within the kitchen team.

What do we expect from you?

As an independent chef you are on an operational level the main support for the small kitchen of Cafe Binnenvisser and part of a small team (sous chef and head chef). You work directly with the current head and sous chef (co-owner) on different mise en place & service shifts and you support with creation of dishes.

Who are you?

- experience as a independent chef / chef de partie in professional kitchen(s)
- broad knowledge of products and cooking techniques
- good organizing/planning skills
- preference to work with quality products and small / local suppliers
- creative when it comes to help inventing new dishes
- preference to work in a small kitchen with a small team

What do we offer?

- creative, vibrant and dynamic workplace with a lot of responsibility
- generous salary
- young, motivated and inquisitive colleagues with ambition
- challenging position within a small team with a lot of freedom and scope to make an impact

For a job application or more info, please email to info@binnenvisser.nl with a resume and short motivation.